

RHINE RIVER CRUISE – INCLUDED EXCURSIONS

During the trip along the Rhine, A-O Trips has chartered two ships which means two groups will be sailing at the same time. Most of the time we will be sailing/docking in tandem (side by side). However, there may be occasions where the ships are docked independently of each other in different locations. Not only will it be important that you know which ship is yours, but these different docking positions may impact content of specific excursions as well as transfer time for the excursion.

Wave	Travel Dates	Group # / Ship Name	Group # / Ship Name
Wave 8	Depart US Oct 28 – Return Nov 6	Group 15 / Vista	Group 16 / Expression

Listed below are daily activities and excursions that are included at no extra cost to you. You are allowed to select one per day when offered. Excursions are first come, first served basis so we suggest signing up as soon as you receive the MyAvalonSM link. You can expect to get this via email approximately 3-4 weeks prior to your group arrival day.

Cancellation policy for excursions: you can cancel any included or optional excursions purchased up to 3 days prior to the shore excursion. Tours can be cancelled through MyAvalonSM or on board with the Cruise Director.

Avalon Waterways classifies their excursions into these categories:

ACTIVE: Embark on energetic excursions to keep you in motion and on the go such as a guided biking tour, kayaking or hiking your way through scenic locales.

DISCOVERY: We've found inspiring and interactive activities to your interests such as cooking classes that immerse you in each culture you explore.

CLASSIC: Your local expert is ready to guide you through the history and heritage of local destinations. You'll marvel at the legends, lore, and spectacular architecture of iconic and historic sites.

Day 1 Amsterdam

Day 2 – Nijmegen

Choose one of the following included activities in advance through MyAvalonSM.

1. A Bridge Too Far: Airborne Museum Hartenstein

Immortalized in the film “A Bridge Too Far,” the Battle of Arnhem was a major conflict during World War II in which Allied forces attempted, unsuccessfully, to capture a bridgehead on the northern banks of the Rhine River in 1944. This gripping guided excursion takes you to the award-winning Airborne Museum Hartenstein, which is dedicated to the battle. Housed in the impressive 19th-century Villa Hartenstein, former headquarters of the British command, you’ll get a poignant retrospective. Stories of British, Polish, and German soldiers, as well as civilians who lived through the ordeal, come to life through the large collection of authentic weapons, equipment, uniforms, documents, films, and photographs. An underground 3D “Airborne Experience” in the cellar places you right in the center of the action, showcasing the war in all its intensity. You’ll even follow in the footsteps of a British parachutist as you are briefed on the mission, board a glider, and “fly” over the occupied Netherlands—an unforgettable experience.

DURATION: AM Tour, typically 9am-1pm, 4 hrs; timing is subject to change according to final docking location.

WHAT TO WEAR/BRING: Comfortable shoes and clothing, dress in layers, including a jacket. Don’t forget to bring sunscreen, sunglasses, hat, and your refillable water bottle filled with water from the ship water station.
